Take Pleasure In Cooking With Recipes From Restaurants

You will be shocked and amazed at all the sinfully rich and delicious meals and side dishes that are out there, that are amazingly quick and easy to prepare. This means that you will not run the all too common disaster scenarios that you hear about and will still manage to have a wonderful meal that is enjoyed by all.

The trick is in choosing a one of the recipes like meat dish and dressing it up with the more decadent side dishes. Incredibly rich side dishes that are simple to prepare are greater in number than meat dishes that require little culinary effort. You should also keep in mind the audience for your special occasion. Sometimes a family favorite makes the occasion seem much more special than an all out effort for chicken cordon bleu or veal Marsala. There is no point in going to an extreme effort to create a culinary masterpiece if it is going to be riddled with picky children proclaiming that they do not like this or that about your meal.

Another great idea when it comes to cooking for special occasions is get those recipes from America's favorite restaurants. You will be amazed how easy to make them at home.

Tips to grill your beef

Do you attempt to grill your beef and expect to get perfect results? Were you successful in your previous attempts? Do not worry. Once you get a hang of it, it will be an easy task and you should not be finding it difficult anymore. You can try getting some tips from experts regarding grilling Angus and steak beef. This is very good for your health. Preparing these items requires lot of patience on your part and you need to have hands on experience to have the best of beef.

It is important to decide the kind of beef you want. If you prefer steak or angus, then make sure to choose a thick and well marbled slab of meat. These food items will need preliminary preparation such as trimming and boning. So what are the steps involved in grilling your beef? It is important to pre-heat the grill to the accurate level. You can choose either charcoal or the gas grill depending upon your comfort level. Remember that briquettes are required for charcoal grills to build up the flame.

You can coat the steak beef in olive oil and dip it in a container having pepper and coarse salt. Place it on the grill once the preliminary preparations are done. If you want to use a marinade, then you can soak the meat in it for 3 to 4 hours prior to grilling. However, most of the people do not prefer this option. Make sure you do not place it directly over the fire. If you are using gas grill, then turn on one side and leave the other side unlit.

A thicker steak is ideal to grill and it should be well marbled. This will make sure there is some fat content present throughout the steak which will make it juicier and tastier. Allow the beef to reach the normal room temperature before you start cooking. The cooking time is dependent on the thickness of beef. Avoid flipping the meat frequently and refrain from using forks. You can use tongs instead of forks or alternatively you can use your finger to test if cooking is done. Allow it to reach the desired doneness and remove the beef from grill. Do not worry if you have started cooking for the first time. Experience is the best teacher. You will learn lessons by making mistakes.

Make sure you buy the beef from a reputable shop. The quality should not be comprised under any cost. It is highly recommended to learn the tricks and lessons on grilling the beef. It will be very helpful when you have a team outing in the office or when you go on a vacation with your family members. Angus beef is preferred over steak beef by some

A lot of people could benefit to carry on with doing work in the cooking sector for a number of weeks and educate themselves on the skill linked to preparing any bill of materials for a dish due to the fact that this way, they would get to know how certain ingredients can be grouped together to make a sub assembly before the preparation into the final assembly. The best chefs recipes will be obvious when compared to sub-standard ones, and those who actually study cooking also learn how to write clear, concise chefs recipes.

A few top cooks have acquired this skill of course, and they actually produce superb food, freshly prepared as well as in a short period of time. It simply comes from storing the meal in a sub-assembly state right up until youre ready to cook, then throw everything together to create a great dish. All of the best chefs recipes are going to be not only easy to follow, but will also be written in a manner that makes it easy to group ingredients together in preparation for storage and for creating the actual dish, too.

If you want to experiment with diverse marinades, rubs and sponge mops as well as generating some really tasty accompaniments regarding your summer barbecue parties, for example, you need to be able to pick out a great chefs recipe from a not-so-great one. Many people think that writing a great documentation of how to prepare certain foods together to make a recipe only needs a list of ingredients and maybe how long to cook the dish for. There is so much more to creating great recipes! All the idea takes is to consider how to prepare the food and record it, but it has to be exact, it has to be in a logical order of operation, and it has to be clearly understandable. One thing that basically frustrates people is when theres no clear information about how long the actual recipe is going to take.

Whats truly annoying is when you get half way through a recipe and then see the words put the mix to one part and marinate overnight. If you have been planning a big party, meal or event and had no idea that this chefs recipe was going to take 12 hours from start to finish because it was not clear at first glance, you will know for the next time you cook that you need to make sure you know ahead of time how far in advance you need to collect and combine your ingredients.

A Few Steak Recipes

Here are a couple of steak recipes that have worked really well for me in the past. The first recipe is a simple Italian marinade that produces a ton of flavor, even in a cheaper cut of meat. I would recommend chuck steak or better for this, but you could even do it with round and it will come out pretty decent.

First, take your steak and pepper it heavily with meat tenderizer on both sides. Next take 2 forks and rapidly stab the piece of steak while holding a fork in each hand. After doing this, place the meat in your refrigerator for about 5 hours or so. This will really help with the tenderness later on. Get a plastic zip lock baggie that is just big enough to hold the piece of steak and then fill it with about one cup worth of Italian salad dressing. Pretty much any brand will work but you can experiment with buying different brands of dressing to get a better flavor. Now the key is that you should suck all of the air out of the plastic baggie so that the marinade is pressed up tightly against the meat as all of the extra air gets sucked out of the bag. Seal it up and throw it in the refrigerator overnight. That's it! Grill it up the next day and you will have a very tasty steak.

Recipes from The Weekend Chef (<http://theweekendchef.com>)

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

The other steak recipe that works well for me starts out much the same as above. Tenderize the meat with the forks and also with the tenderizer. Instead of using dressing though, slather the piece of meat with a mixture of Worcestershire sauce and A1 Bold and Spicy. Slather this mixture on both sides of the meat and then let it sit in your fridge overnight. Do not use A1 on the steak after it is cooked but instead use it as a marinade. For some added flavor you might add some hickory smoke flavoring to the meat while you are cooking it as well.

How to Barbeque Pork – Tips and Secrets

A great barbeque is indeed a great part of great summer outdoor fun. If you want to impress everybody with your pork barbeque, you can find many tips and secrets from the barbeque masters. Learning how to barbeque pork is not that difficult as well, even if it is your first time to try hands-on grilling. Here are some simple tips you can start with.

First things first, you must prepare your ingredients for your outdoor barbeque. If you want to learn how to barbeque pork, which is the most common meat that we all want to put on that grill, you need to first know how to choose the meat. Of course, if you want to impress them with the taste, you must also find a great meat. Even if you got the tastiest sauce, a tough meat will always ruin the recipe.

Remember that the first secret in making the best pork barbeque is a good quality meat. You can choose your meat with bone or without or you can choose that rib part. It is important to choose quality fresh ingredients for your pork barbeque and for your side dishes, and always make sure they are clean.

Soaking your meat in a marinade for at least 30 minutes is important. Some may even soak them overnight with their secret sauces and spices. Marinades help make the meat become tender when cooked and they enhance the flavor, as the seasonings are absorbed more into the meat. The marinades can also be used to baste the meat before barbequing.

Choosing your fire in barbequing is also another thing to consider. You can use charcoal or briquettes but the latter may be a little difficult to light. Take note also that using charcoals needs patience and time in the preparation, so make sure you are starting with your barbeque a little early before everyone gets hungry. You can also use gas barbeque but, somehow, meat grilled on charcoal tastes better.

One thing you also have to remember in learning how to barbeque pork is that you need to have a close watch on it as the fats from the pork that drip on the fire may cause flames to flare up and this can char some parts of the meat. It is also important that the meat should not be cooked by flames but by the heat. One thing you can do when flames flare up is to spray or sprinkle it with water to extinguish the flames.

Another thing in learning how to barbeque pork is to make sure

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

the meat is cooked, but not too much that it makes the meat dry or burnt. This will help you kill organisms that may thrive in raw meat and of course keep you out of stomach problems.

You can then occasionally turn the meat over to make them cook equally. Only brush the sauce on the meat 10 minutes before you get the meat out of the grill. This will allow the sauce to caramelize and prevent it from burning as well.

After you have learned some tips and secrets on how to barbeque pork and master its taste, you can then move on to making the best side dishes for your barbeque and preparing the best wine to go with it.

Carolyn Anderson loves to treat friends and family in a great barbeque. Santa Maria Beef Tri-Tip Recipe

Ingredients

1 tablespoon salt
1/2 teaspoon black pepper
1/2 teaspoon garlic salt
1 top sirloin steak (3" thick), or tri-tip
Red oak logs, or charcoal and oak chips (soaked in water)

Method

Combine the salt, pepper, and garlic salt together, and thoroughly rub the mixture over the meat.

Place the meat on grill and adjust it's position so that it sits around 2 or 3 inches from the charcoal/heat source.

Sear each side of the meat over hot coals 5 to 8 minutes to seal in juices, turning them only once.

Now re-position the meat so that it is positioned about 6 to 8 inches from the heat source. Cook the meat for another 20 to

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

30 minutes, turning every 7 or 8 minutes until the beef is cooked to the desired degree of doneness.

Allow the meat to rest in foil for 30 minutes before slicing and serving.

Tri-Tip facts

In the United States, Tri-Tips were usually ground up, or sliced into steaks, until the early 1960's when it became synonymous with Santa Maria, CA, as a local speciality food.

Tri-Tips were, and still are today, rubbed with a spice blend, or dry rub, that includes salt, pepper and other seasonings including garlic salt. The meat is then cooked and smoked over a pit of red oak wood, or more commonly, on a rotisserie, BBQ grill, or broiled in a large covered cooking vessel.

Even today, the Tri-Tip cut of beef is still referred to as the Santa Maria Steak.

This cut is very versatile in how it can be prepared.

The traditional Santa Maria style of cooking is grilling at low heat over a red oak pit but the tri-tip can be slow-smoked, marinated or seasoned with a dry rub.

The Tri-Tip is cooked over high heat on a grill, on a

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

rotisserie, or in an oven and after the meat has been cooked it is normally sliced across the grain before serving.

Tri-Tip doneness temperature guide

Rare (Red with cold, soft center) – 125 to 130 degrees

Medium-Rare (Red with warm, somewhat firm center) – 135 to 140 degrees

Medium (Pink and firm throughout) – 140 to 150 degrees

Medium-well (Pink line in center, quite firm) – 150 to 155 degrees

Well-done (Gray-brown throughout and completely firm) 160 to 165 degrees

I never get tired of eating Tri-Tip as this cut of beef is simply fantastic served up on it's own, or with a gutsy BBQ sauce. Once you've smoked Tri-Tip and enjoyed it, the chances are that you will already be anticipating the next time you have it!

Recipes For Dog Food

Recipes For Dog Food

There are several recipes for dog food out there. They are fast and easy to use to make sure your dog gets all the nutrition that she needs each day. You can choose to be elaborate or simple with your dog food, it is up to you. The best part is you can easily make your pet's food for cheap, at a higher quality, and better health wise than buying any of the best foods on the market in a store. Recipes are all over the web and once you make it once, you will never forget. Most of the recipes for dog food you make will make not only your dog's mouth water, but yours too.

Vegetable Meatloaf For Dogs

Other recipes for dog food have nothing on this delicious meatloaf. Not only is it tasty, it has everything your dog will need as far as nutrients are concerned. You will need to have the following ingredients:

- 2 pounds of ground beef, chicken, or turkey
- 4 stalks of celery

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

- ☐ 5 carrots
- ☐ 6 ounces of tomato paste
- ☐ 4 potatoes
- ☐ 1 apple
- ☐ 2 eggs
- ☐ 2 slices of bread
- ☐ 1 cup of rolled oats
- ☐ 1 cup of wheat germ

In a very large bowl you will want to add the ground meat, three chopped celery stalks, two grated carrots, the chopped apple, eggs, rolled oats, wheat germ, shredded bread, and tomato paste. Mix it all with your hands to make sure it is thoroughly mixed and divide into four loaves. You will want to cook these loaves in a preheated roasting pan at 350 degrees. You will surround the loaves with cubed potatoes, carrots, and celery and then cover and cook for 80 minutes. Each loaf should be stored with a quarter of the vegetables in the refrigerator. Feed 1/3 of each bag each day. You can feed with kibble or without.

Chicken Recipe For Dogs

Recipes for dog food that include chicken are a very popular replacement for other wet foods. This recipe can feed a large dog for about a week if you portion out the correct amount and freeze it. You will need to have 3 pounds of chicken either minced from a whole bird or ground. You will also need some vegetables. The best ones are the frozen variety packs that contain no garlic or onions. Make sure they have small chunks or that you cut them into small chunks. You will also need a bag of brown or whole wheat rice as well.

Place the chicken and two and a half cups of the veggies into a large sauce pan with six and a half cups of water. Bring the mixture to a boil while stirring constantly. Add four cups of rice and reduce the temperature to medium-low and simmer for 25 minutes covered. Make sure all the liquid is absorbed. Separate into individual servings and store in the refrigerator. This mixture is served cold with or without kibble.
