have the following ingredients:

- ☐ 2 pounds of ground beef, chicken, or turkey
- ☐ 4 stalks of celery
- ☐ 5 carrots
- ☐ 6 ounces of tomato paste
- ☐ 4 potatoes
- ☐ 1 apple
- ☐ 2 eggs
- ☐ 2 slices of bread
- ☐ 1 cup of rolled oats
- ☐ 1 cup of wheat germ

In a very large bowl you will want to add the ground meat, three chopped celery stalks, two grated carrots, the chopped apple, eggs, rolled oats, wheat germ, shredded bread, and tomato paste. Mix it all with your hands to make sure it is thoroughly mixed and divide into four loaves. You will want to cook these loaves in a preheated roasting pan at 350 degrees. You will surround the loaves with cubed potatoes, carrots, and celery and then cover and cook for 80 minutes. Each loaf should be stored with a quarter of the vegetables in the refrigerator. Feed 1/3 of each bag each day. You can feed with kibble or without.

Chicken Recipe For Dogs

Recipes for dog food that include chicken are a very popular replacement for other wet foods. This recipe can feed a large dog for about a week if you portion out the correct amount and freeze it. You will need to have 3 pounds of chicken either minced from a whole bird or ground. You will also need some vegetables. The best ones are the frozen variety packs that contain no garlic or onions. Make sure they have small chunks or that you cut them into small chunks. You will also need a bag of brown or whole wheat rice as well.

Place the chicken and two and a half cups of the veggies into a large sauce pan with six and a half cups of water. Bring the mixture to a boil while stirring constantly. Add four cups of rice and reduce the temperature to medium-low and simmer for 25 minutes covered. Make sure all the liquid is absorbed. Separate into individual servings and store in the refrigerator. This mixture is served cold with or without kibble.

Vegetarian Picnic Food Ideas

Everyone loves a picnic, children, parents, grandparents, dogs. The list just goes on and on. But, not everyone at your picnic will like the same sort of picnic food, which is why it's important to have a wide variety of picnic cuisine. If you're a vegetarian or sharing a picnic with a few, you'll need to make sure that there is plenty of vegetarian picnic food available. Here are a few options.

Veggie Burger

A veggie burger is a meatless hamburger patty. Instead of beef, a veggie burger can be made from vegetables, soy meat, dairy products, wheat or other ingredients. Veggie burgers made of soy meat can be tossed on the grill just like regular burgers. A few of the most popular versions of the veggie burger are the portabella mushroom burger and the spicy black bean burger.

Falafel

Give your picnic food some Middle Eastern flair by preparing a few falafels. This tasty vegetarian dish consists of a ball or patty constructed of ground chickpeas and fava beans and usually served in a pita. It is often topped with vegetables and tahini-based sauces.

Big salad

Toss all of your favorite veggies together in a delicious salad and you have a killer picnic meal. Here's a swell recipe for a sun-dried tomato salad that will satiate any picnicker's hunger.

Tofu Dog

Want a hot dog without the meat? Then, just toss a tofu dog on the grill. A tofu dog is high in protein, low in fat and a delicious picnic food. Feel free to slather it in ketchup and mustard just like you would with a regular hot dog.

Deviled Eggs

Typically composed of hard-boiled eggs, mayonnaise, salad dressing and mustard, deviled eggs are a delectable picnic food option. Spice your deviled eggs up by by tossing a little paprika or garnish on them.

Chicken Recipes – Where Can I Find Chicken Recipes and Other Kinds of Barbecue Food?

I would like to continue the topic of barbecue meals. It's becoming really popular these days, so I think this topic can be really interesting. I would like to give you some information about tools used for barbecues, about some meals (especially chicken meals and chicken recipes), and about some additions, such as sauces or salads.

The first thing I would like to describe is corn. The corn from barbecue is very popular and a tasty appetizer in the United States of America. It's good to put a toothpick at the ends of the corn, so it will be easier to handle it.

The next thing (or things) that I want to describe are barbecue tools. You should remember about the cutlery of course (knife, fork etc). I think that a metal barbecue graticule can be useful (for example for fish).

Of course the most important part of a barbecue is meat. I prefer chicken meat. You can prepare it in many ways, because there are many chicken recipes. Chicken meat is very tasty and delicate. It is also very cheap meat and it is healthy, so people with health problems can eat it. They can forget about heart diseases or a high cholesterol level in the blood when eating chicken. You can make a lot of chicken meals, such as chicken breast with spinach or chicken shish-kebab with banana-coconut sauce and many more dishes. As you can observe, there are lots of chicken recipes for barbecue.

I also want to add some information about things that are making barbecue food more tasty. These things are marinades made from oil, fresh herbs and garlic. Chicken meat is very soft, so you can put it in marinade for half an hour. If you prefer stakes, use herb butter. There are also other barbecue additions or appetizers such as figs (or other fruits such as bananas or peaches). I think that roasted potatoes are also a very tasty barbecue appetizer. You can eat them in salad as well (which is very tasty). Of course, don't forget about different sauces. You can prepare them yourself or buy some.

I think that the facts included in this article are the most important ones and that they can be very helpful for you. Remember them when you are preparing your barbecue. You should

Being A Raw Versus Cooked Food Vegan

As with all things, being a vegan is an evolutionary process. Many who begin as cooked food vegans evolve into raw food vegans. Then, of course, there are those who opt to remain cooked vegans, which is generally a matter of individual preference and often primarily depends on where one is in his or her journey. Some are in a place where they can stand to make more of a dietary sacrifice, while others are happy with the status quo and don't feel the need to be any more extreme,

Recipes from The Weekend Chef (<http://theweekendchef.com>)

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

so to speak.

Either way, there are certainly pros and cons for both as well as a fair share of differences. For one, maintaining a cooked vegan diet, at first glance, appears to be more convenient as it requires only that one omit all meat and meat products and eat only plant-based foods whether cooked or raw. Meanwhile, a raw vegan diet consists of the same with the exception of the state of the food. Specifically, raw vegans eat only uncooked plant-based foods. The term 'uncooked' means that the food has not been heated above 118 degrees, which is said to destroy the food's nutrients, minerals and enzymes.

Essentially, a raw food vegan diet consists of one that is at least 75 percent uncooked, unprocessed, fresh, natural fruits, vegetables, nuts, seeds, some seaweeds and juices. The remaining 25 percent of the diet generally consists of plant-based foods that have either been cooked above 118 degrees and/or are minimally processed.

For many cooked food vegans the observation of such restrictions proves to be unbearably challenging and admittedly so. However, the source of the challenge is mainly external, specifically with regards to how others perceive raw foodists. Raw vegans are often viewed as extremists. Yet,

Recipes from The Weekend Chef (<http://theweekendchef.com>)

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

unlike cooked food vegans who are viewed this same way by non-vegans, raw vegans are viewed this way by both non-vegans and vegans alike.

Nonetheless, despite the perceptions of this group of nutrition enthusiasts, most who try it admittedly experience improved health, the need for less medications, healthy weight loss and weight management, improved vision, enhanced moods and most commonly, increased energy. Increased energy is usually due to the fact that a raw food diet enables the body to absorb more nutrients from food which translates into more energy. Also, with fewer toxins being absorbed, the body exerts less energy trying to process and digest foods and substances that it doesn't recognize, subsequently freeing up a lot of energy.

Either way you look at it there are vast benefits to both. A cooked vegan diet is more convenient and a lot healthier than most alternatives, whether meat or dairy-based. However, it is no match for a nutrient-dense raw food diet.

Diabetics

A diabetic food list is not like the grocery list prepared by someone to cater the kitchen needs. The right person to suggest such foods is the physician who can diagnose the case and prepare the list of diabetic foods for type 2 diabetics. Food is prime that tops the human need for energy. People know that foods can do wonders in curing certain diseases. However when it comes to diabetes, they fail to develop the right concept in choosing proper diet to help reduce blood sugar. So if you are a diabetic, you ought to be careful in choosing diabetic foods to eat whatever medication you are taking. The right choice of foods will speed up to lower the risks of diabetes.

Unfortunately, consuming unlimited volumes of whatever one feels to have aggravates the diabetic condition. You can eat whatever you want, but you're to be within bounds on making better choices of foods for diabetes and avoiding some treats in volumes. There are lots of things to care when choosing the right type of diabetic foods to serve you to the need. You should keep close watch on what are the diets that really help you control blood sugar. However, I'm pleased to give you a simple and short list of diabetic foods for type 2 diabetes so that you are benefited anyway. Just spend a few minutes to have a glance of the following small list of diabetic foods.

Vegetables: You can consume vegetables in plenty and as much as you like. If the vegetables you choose to eat are fresh and green, the benefits will be more than what you can have from stored varieties. You have in this list Spinach, black beans, cabbage, etc. Potatoes should be excluded as they can give negative results in controlling blood glucose.

Fruits: Fruits have wonderful medicinal effects for diabetics when they eat just to the need. It's bad to take for stomach filling but can be justified if small servings are enjoyed by type 2 diabetics. There is no allowance for juices and fruits from freezers since they have no place in the list of diabetic foods to beat diabetes.

Grains: Grains are working well if they are whole and not broken. Wheat and oats are the best of diabetic foods to eat. Don't get to bread daily but it may be something special when you are a diabetic of type 2.

With warning symptoms of diabetes, controlling diabetes is an

French Food Recipes – Sesame Chicken With Aioli

This dish is a French classic, as aioli is a speciality of Provence. Many French food recipes are extremely rich and therefore not low in fat – this is no exception. For a lower fat version you could use ready made light mayonnaise, mixed with mustard, garlic and parsley – if you go this route, you can omit the egg and the olive oil from the list of ingredients.

Ingredients

4 skinless, boneless chicken breasts

Recipes from The Weekend Chef (<http://theweekendchef.com>)

Over 350,000 Free Food and 9,000 Drink Recipes

4 cloves garlic
bunch of spring onions
1/2 teaspoon Dijon mustard
1 egg
6fl oz/175ml olive oil
juice of 1/2 lemon
1/2 bunch parsley
1 tablespoon sesame seeds
4oz/100g quick cook noodles
2 tablespoons sunflower oil
4oz/100g sugar snap peas
2 tablespoons mango chutney
salt and black pepper

Method

Cut the chicken into thin strips. Trim the spring onions and slice them diagonally, approximately the same width as the chicken. Peel and finely chop the garlic. Finely chop the parsley.

To make the aioli sauce; blend the garlic, mustard, parsley and 2 tablespoons of the olive oil in a blender or food processor until creamy and smooth. Keep the blender running and add the egg, then slowly add the remaining olive oil, followed by the lemon juice. Season with salt and black pepper. Empty the mixture into a bowl and set aside in the refrigerator until required.

Heat a wok and toast the sesame seeds until golden, remove and set aside. Heat the sunflower oil and stir-fry the spring onions for 2-3 minutes. Add the chicken and stir-fry for a further 5-6 minutes until browned.

Add the noodles and peas and stir-fry for 2-3 minutes. Stir in the chutney, season and sprinkle the sesame seeds on top. Spoon the sesame chicken onto four plates and serve with the aioli sauce.

Be aware:- I should advise you that any dish containing raw egg should not be consumed by women who are pregnant, very young children or the elderly and infirm!

Bon Appetit.

Avoidable Food for the Diabetic

With diabetes, one's body is unable to regulate glucose to be converted into energy properly due to the lack of or inability to produce insulin. Because of this, diabetic people have specific diabetic food to consume in order to stay healthy. There is still a lot of food that diabetics can consume, just that there is some food they should avoid. Here are some of them.

Â

The number one rule for diabetics is to avoid sweet food. Food that is rich in sugar like candy, donuts, and chocolate can be detrimental to the health of a diabetic, as they are rich in glucose, in which diabetics cannot regulate well. Having too much glucose in the system would cause hyperglycemia, a nerve, blood vessel, and organ-damaging condition. High carbohydrate food is also high in fructose and glucose, so do avoid them as well.

Â

Recipes from The Weekend Chef (<http://theweekendchef.com>)

With diabetes, it is found that the condition lowers good cholesterol and raises bad cholesterol. Because of this, diabetic people are susceptible to cardiovascular diseases. Avoiding food that is rich in bad cholesterol like egg yolk, high-fat dairy products, poultry, and fried food helps reduce the chances of such diseases.

Although fruits and vegetables may seem like the healthier choices of food, there are several fruits and vegetables that can be bad for diabetics. Fruits like mango and strawberries and vegetables rich in starch like potatoes, can raise blood sugar levels. You can substitute them with carrots, beans, or beet roots instead.

Â

Another avoidable thing to consume is alcohol. Especially when consumed on an empty stomach, one can get hypoglycemia, which is lower than normal levels of glucose, and can cause damage to the brain. A damaged liver due to excessive alcohol intake will also make a diabetic's body have difficulty controlling the glucose levels in their body.

Recipes from The Weekend Chef (<http://theweekendchef.com>)

Â

Fried food in general is unhealthy, because they tend to be fried with hydrogenated oil, which raises bad cholesterol. If a diabetic wishes to have some fried food occasionally, they should be cooked in healthier oil like canola or olive oil. Otherwise, they should go for other healthy cooking methods, such as steamed, baked, grilled, or boiled.

Â

All in all, diabetic food consists of food low in sugar, carbohydrates, and cholesterol. Eat right, and you will be able to enjoy a healthier life.
